Freedom Now! Forgotten Photographs of the Civil Rights Struggle Nov 10 - Dec 14 / Jan 5 - Feb 8. Photographers shot innumerable pictures of the black civil rights struggle between the close of World War II and the early 1970s, yet most Americans today can recall just a handful of images that look remarkably similar.

Freedom Now! | Hanes Art Gallery

The resulting 'canon' of images typically features anonymous, non-threatening, and passive subjects - a 'safe', unbalanced and ultimately disempowering depiction of black activists to which Martin Berger offers a 'historical corrective' with his own selection of 49 images - all of which were available to the mainstream press at the time, though a good number of them were never ...
