Minds Made for Stories by Thomas Newkirk. How We Really ...

Minds Made for Stories | In this highly readable and provocative book, Thomas Newkirk explodes the long standing habit of opposing abstract argument with telling stories. Newkirk convincingly shows that effective argument is already a kind of narrative and is deeply "entwined with narrative." --Gerald Graff, former MLA President and author of Clueless in Academe Narrative is regularly ...

Minds Made for Stories (eBook) by Thomas Newkirk. How We ...

Minds Made for Stories. "It is conventional to view narrative as a mode, a type of writing, often an easy one. We are told that on the job and in college, we do the hard stuff, we analyze and make logical arguments. We don't tell stories. But we do. We can't get away from it." —Tom Newkirk. Read Chapter One, "Sustained Reading," where Tom describes the conflict between the way we treat narrative in school and the central role narrative plays in our consciousness.
