The songs are identical to the ones that The Piano Guys play in concert. They might've slightly simplified the arrangement and of course, it is missing the improvising that we enjoyed in their performance. The songs are great, and you will enjoy playing/listening to them. The Piano Guys have several YouTube videos playing the songs from this book.

There are three arrangements that are strictly solo piano and do not include an optional cello part: Angels We Have Heard on High, Still Still Still, and Christmas Morning.
